

Twenty Questions About Mommy

Ask the mom-to-be's mother, husband or close friend to give you a total of twenty interesting pieces of information about the mommy, such as: Biggest pregnancy craving? Place she met her husband? Her most famous recipe? Favorite actress/actor? Favorite TV show? Biggest pet peeve? Most embarrassing moment? Most frivolous indulgence? What is she most passionate about? Most incriminating music preference? High School superlative? These are a few to get you started.

Use the answers to create a quiz for guests. The quiz could be given orally and guests could shout out the answers or could it be prepared and copied prior and corrected aloud. It's more fun if the expectant mom doesn't know about this game ahead of time. The guest who answers the most questions correctly wins!
